Information on Lake Kegonsa State Park

Lake Kegonsa State Park, south of Wisconsin's state capital, Madison, offers a natural, peaceful atmosphere beside a glacier-hewed lake.

Selecting one of the 80 beautiful campsites nestled among the oaks can be a difficult task. After setting up camp, visitors can hike a trail, enjoy the beach, launch their boat, or have a picnic in the park.

Lake Kegonsa offers swimming, fishing, water-skiing, sailing, and motor boating. The lake covers 3,209 acres and is more than 30 feet deep. Park visitors enjoy the lake's excellent fishing.

The 342-acre park of oak woods, prairie and wetland marsh was established in 1962 and officially opened on August 12, 1966. Today, Lake Kegonsa State Park eagerly awaits its visitors, ready to give them a quality recreational experience.

Park Facilities

- 5.1 miles of hiking trails (0.6 miles of designated hiking trails when ski trails are open)
- 5.5 miles of cross-country ski trails
- There are no bicycle trails in the park, but bicycles are welcome on the paved park roads.
- .75 mile of lake shore
- Wetland boardwalk
- 80-unit family campground
- Three group campsites
- Sanitary dumping station (open seasonally)
- Campground shower and flush toilet building (open seasonally)
- Swimming beach

Hours

The park is open year-round from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. daily. All visitors who are not registered campers must leave the park from 11 p.m. to 6 a.m.

The campground is open from May 1 to October 31.

Park Fees (separate from Badgerland NA donations)

Each vehicle entering the park must have a park admission sticker on its windshield. You can buy your park sticker at the park office when staff is available or at the self-registration station next to the office when the office is closed.

Trail passes are not required on the hiking or cross-country ski trails in Lake Kegonsa State Park, but the park office sells annual trail passes for use at other Wisconsin state parks or state trails.
